The People of Oregon amend Article IV, Section 28 of the Oregon Constitution as follows:

- (1) No act shall take effect, until ninety days from the end of the session at which the same shall have passed, except in case of emergency; which emergency shall be declared in the preamble, or in the body of the law.
- (2) (a) Two-thirds of the members of each House shall be necessary to pass a bill declaring an emergency.
(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply to:
 - (A) Bills passed in direct response to a "catastrophic disaster" declared by the Governor within an emergency legislative session operating under Article X-A of this Constitution.
 - (B) Bills limited to the biennial appropriation of funding for current and ordinary expenses of state government or Oregon's K-12 public school system in a regular legislative session under Article IV, Section 10(1)(a). "Current and ordinary expenses" shall not include:
 - (I) Expenditures for activities or programs of agencies, institutions, organizations that were not funded in the prior biennial budget;
 - (II) Biennial budget increases to agencies, institutions or organizations in excess of 12% above the prior biennium; or
 - (III) Any bills appropriating funds for capital expenditure projects that include an authorization for debt financing that will not be fully repaid in two years.
 - (C) Bills limited to reducing appropriations in order to balance the state budget during a revenue shortfall.
